On April 18, 1967, JN T-3 furnished the following information regarding DONALD HOLLAND, the current owner and operator of Holland's Feed Mill, Meadville, Mississippi:

DONALD HOLLAND WAS born and raised in rural Franklin County, Mississippi, in the immediate vicinity of his current residence which can be reached by taking Highway 98, east from Meadville, Mississippi, crossing the Homochitto River, and taking a left on the first blacktop road approximately one half mile east of the Homochitto River.

DONALD HOLLAND resides in a small brick ranch house on the left, or west side of the blacktop road, approximately three miles from Highway 98. FOIA(b)7

He advised that HOLLAND'S father and two or three brothers reside in that immediate vicinity. He advised that ELDEN HESTER resides approximately one half mile past the residence of DONALD HOLLAND, on the same road _____ advised that he has no information indicating that DONALD HOLLAND or ELDEN HESTER were members of either of the UKA units in Franklin County, Mississippi.

He stated that he has on numerous occasions believed DONALD HOLLAND to be associated with the Klan in some manner due to his close association with BUFORD ASHLEY of Meadville, who he knew to have been a member of the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Mississippi (WKKKKOM). i _____ advised that some four or five years ago DONALD HOLLAND, after working as a carpenter most of his life, by some means talked Mr. SCAROBOROUGH, who owns the local Ford Motor Company, into selling him a feed mill that he owned and operated in Meadville. | .

He advised that Mr. SCAROBOROUGH apparently financed this transaction for HOLLAND and from information that came to his attention, HOLLAND swindled Mr. SCAROBOROUGH out of $25,000 during the first year he operated the feed mill.

He stated he has also been advised that Mr. SCAROBOROUGH detected this swindle and rather than prosecuting HOLLAND gave him either four or five years to repay the $25,000 or be prosecuted.

_____ advised that the entire HOLLAND family has a reputation of being extremely hotheaded and he is reasonably certain that either DONALD HOLLAND or one of his brothers killed a man during the course of a church service at their Holiness Church in their community some eight to ten years ago. He stated the HOLLAND boy, whichever one it was, was not prosecuted as no members of the congregation would testify against him.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date April 17, 1967

WILLIAM M₀ SCARBROUGH* owner, Ford agency, located in Meadville, Mississippi, was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agents and voluntarily furnished the following information:

SCARBROUGH stated that he is well acquainted with DONALD HOLLAND present owner of the Holland Feed Mill located in Meadville, Mississippi. He prefaced his remarks concerning HOLLAND with the observation that HOLLAND comes from a "good family" and that SCARBROUGH had at some time in the past sold HOLLAND the feed mill which he presently owns. SCARBROUGH stated that he initially sold this feed mill to DONALD HOLLAND and his brother JOE HOLLAND.

SCARBROUGH stated that it was necessary for him to dispose of the feed mill after he had suffered several business reversals due to bad management. He advised that because of this he had sold the feed mill operation to DONALD and JOE HOLLAND who bought the entire operation for $500 down and both agreed to pay SCARBROUGH the remainder (undisclosed) in monthly installments. SCARBROUGH continued by stating that JOE HOLLAND has since left the partnership of his brother, and at the present time the feed mill operation is run entirely by DONALD HOLLAND. He remarked that JOE HOLLAND could not get along with his brother, DONALD, and stated this was the reason for the breakup.

In the Initial contracts drawn for the purchase of the feed mill by DONALD HOLLAND, SCARBROUGH agreed to pay for the concentrates and the corn purchased from out of the state in the Missouri and Tennessee areas to help HOLLAND get started. SCARBROUGH stated that approximately 99 per cent of the corn and concentrates which were purchased by HOLLAND, using SCARBROUGH's credit, were intended for the use of SCARBROUGH in connection with the feeding of approximately three-fourths of a million broilers which SCARBROUGH was then maintaining in the outlying area of Meadville, Mississippi. However, SCARBROUGH stated that in connection with his purchase of corn and concentrates, HOLLAND had asked SCARBROUGH for permission to buy extra corn and concentrates on SCARBROUGH's credit which he could sell to various consumers in the Meadville area. SCARBROUGH stated he granted this permission to HOLLAND, however, he advised that he felt he would not be using more than about 100 or 150 pounds of corn from SCARBROUGH's order at any one time during a monthly period. In essence, SCARBROUGH stated that HOLLAND was operating his feed mill business on SCARBROUGH's established credit record and name.

After about a two and one half year period SCARBROUGH stated he and his accountants checked the records of the operation at the feed mill based on bills received from the out of state corn and concentrate suppliers said found that there was a shortage of approximately $33,000.

SCARBROUGH further stated that after, double checking the figures and arriving at the obvious conclusion that he was being swindled by HOLLAND, he immediately got in touch with HOLLAND'S brother, LAMAR HOLLAND, a local Natchez, Mississippi, builder, and confronted him with the shortage. SCARBROUGH stated that to© has a great deal of respect for LAMAR HOLLAND and that LAMAR HOLLAND, upon being made aware of the scheme of his brother, became angry and related to SCARBROUGH that he should confront his brother with the facts.

SCARBROUGH stated he confronted DONALD HOLLAND with the shortage and HOLLAND initially stated he did not know anything about it. SCARBROUGH then stated that upon checking the records more closely and by asking certain questions in the immediate area of Meadville found that HOLLAND had been operating a "hog operation" on the side and was using corn intended for SCARBROUGH's broilers in his hog operation. Further checks by SCARBROUGH culminated in HOLLAND admitting selling in excess of 30 hogs and "pocketing the profits" at markets in Jackson and throughout the State of Mississippi. When SCARBROUGH asked him for an accounting of this hog operation, HOLLAND refused. SCARBROUGH, initially angered at this deception, threatened HOLLAND with a law suit and with revealing the information to the Internal Revenue Service. However, SCARBROUGH related after consulting with his lawyers, found that the burden of proof rested with him in any type of law suit and because of this decided to settle for $13,000 total payment for the feed mill operation.

SCARBROUGH described HOLLAND as "one of the biggest crooks I dealt with" and "I don't doubt anything he'll do." SCARBROUGH related that although he does not have anything on HOLLAND, he certainly does not doubt anything that he hears about HOLLAND'S character.

In addition, SCARBROUGH stated that HOLLAND has an old Negro man working for him named HUGH D. ROLLINS, who has the reputation in the community of being a good, conscientious worker. SCARBROUGH stated that on several occasions he has tried to induce the Negro to leave the employ of HOLLAND and go to work for the local County Co-Op. ROLLINS is a close friend of SCARBROUGH and has confided to SCARBROUGH that he is afraid to leave the employ of HOLLAND because he is afraid that HOLLAND may do something to him or his family. SCARBROUGH stated that he doubted that ROLLINS would talk to the FBI because he is too afraid of HOLLAND to do so.

SCARBROUGH stated that he has no doubt that HOLLAND is a member of a Klan group in the Meadville, Mississippi, area and that more than likely he is a member in the "Wentworth Group." SCARBROUGH also advised that HOLLAND is a close associate of one DOUGLAS LEONARD who farms near the Berryville Community located east of Meadville off Highway 98. He further stated he knew HOLLAND to be a veteran of the Korean Conflict and he believed he served in the U. S. Army.

In conclusion, SCARBROUGH stated that prior to HOLLAND'S purchase of his Pontiac Bonneville which he presently drives, HOLLAND owned a red Chevrolet, 1959 or 1960 model, four-door sedan, and he further recalled that HOLLAND, had purchased this red Chevrolet new from some unknown dealer in the immediate area.

MATTERS - KLAN

DONALD HOLLAND, owner and operator of HOLLAND's Feedmill, Meadville, Mississippi, resides Route 3, Meadville, has been identified by a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, as being in ATTENDANCE AT A MEETING OF THE SILVER DOLLAR GROUP MEMBERS IS FERRIDAY, LOUISIANA

WILLIAM M. SCARBROUGH, owner, Ford Motor Company, Meadville, has advised that at sometime in the past, 1962 or 1963, he sold a feedmill in Meadville to Donald HOLLAND and his brother, JOE HOLLAND, for a $500 down payment with undisclosed monthly payments. He advised that he made this sale due to the fact he could not get anyone to manage the feedmill for him and he did not have time to do it himself.

Mr. SCARBROUGH advised JOE HOLLAND pulled out of the operation shortly thereafter as he was unable to get along with his brother. DONALD HOLLAND.

Mr. SCARBROUGH advised that as part of the deal he agreed to allow HOLLAND to purchase corn and concentrates on his credit. He advised that he was feeding three fourths of a million broilers on a farm near Meadville and needed vast quantities of corn and concentrates for feed. He stated that HOLLAND asked permission to buy extra corn and concentrates on SCARBROUGH's credit that he could sell to various consumers in the Meadville area. SCARBROUGH stated he granted this permission, but felt he would not be using more than 150 pounds of corn in this manner during the monthly period.

RE: DONALD HOLLAND
RACIAL MATTERS - KLAN

SCARBROUGH advised that after about a two year period his accountants began checking records of the operation of the feedmill based on bills received from out-of-state corn and concentrate suppliers and found there was a shortage of approximately $33,000. SCARBROUGH advised he was able to determine that the $33,000 shortage was due to the fact that his broilers had not been fed the required amount of corn and concentrates and thus did not weigh the proper weight at market time.

SCARBROUGH advised that further investigation on his corn his part revealed that DONALD HOLLAND was feeding to hogs on a hog farm at his residence in rural Meadville, Mississippi. SCARBROUGH advised that he checked with BERNARD STRAUS, Fayette, Mississippi, auction barn operator, in mid 1965 and learned that DONALD HOLLAND had sold some 50 hogs through his barn in the past few months. FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

WILLIAM M. SCARBROUGH, owner. Ford agency, located in Meadville, Mississippi, was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agents and voluntarily furnished the following information:

SCARBROUGH stated that he is well acquainted with DONALD HOLLAND, present owner of the Holland Feed Mill located in Meadville, Mississippi. He prefaced his remarks concerning HOLLAND with the observation that HOLLAND comes from a "good family" and that SCARBROUGH had at some time in the past sold HOLLAND the feed mill which he presently owns. SCARBROUGH stated that he initially sold this feed mill to DONALD HOLLAND and his brother JOE HOLLAND.

SCARBROUGH stated that it was necessary for him to dispose of the feed mill after he had suffered several business reversals due to bad management. He advised that because of this he had sold the feed mill operation to DONALD and JOE HOLLAND who bought the entire operation for $500 down and both agreed to pay SCARBROUGH the remainder (undisclosed) in monthly installments. SCARBROUGH continued by stating that JOE HOLLAND has since left the partnership of his brother and at the present time the feed mill operation is run entirely by DONALD HOLLAND. He remarked that JOE HOLLAND could not get along with his brother, DONALD, and stated this was the reason for the breakup.

In the initial contracts drawn for the purchase of the feed mill by DONALD HOLLAND, SCARBROUGH agreed to pay for the concentrates and the corn purchased from out of the state in the Missouri and Tennessee areas to help HOLLAND get started. SCARBROUGH stated that approximately 99 per cent of the corn and concentrates which were purchased by HOLLAND, using SCARBROUGH'S credit, were intended for the use of SCARBROUGH in connection with the feeding of approximately three-fourths of a million broilers which SCARBROUGH was then maintaining in the outlying area of Meadville, Mississippi. However, SCARBROUGH stated that in connection with his purchase of corn and concentrates, HOLLAND had asked SCARBROUGH for permission to buy extra corn and concentrates on SCARBROUGH's credit which he could sell to various consumers in the Meadville area. SCARBROUGH stated he granted this permission to HOLLAND, however, he advised that he felt he would not be using more than about 100 or 150 pounds of corn from SCARBROUGH's order at any one time during a monthly period. In essence, SCARBROUGH stated that HOLLAND was operating his feed mill business on SCARBROUGH's established credit record and name. After about a two and one half year period SCARBROUGH stated he and his accountants checked the records of the operation at the feed mill based on bills received from the out of state corn and concentrate suppliers and found that there was a shortage of approximately $33,000.

SCARBROUGH further stated that after double checking the figures and arriving at the obvious conclusion that he was being swindled by HOLLAND, he immediately got in touch with HOLLAND'S brother, LAMAR HOLLAND, a local Natchez, Mississippi, builder, and confronted him with the shortage. SCARBROUGH stated that he has a great deal of respect for LAMAR HOLLAND and that LAMAR HOLLAND, upon being made aware of the scheme of his brother, became angry and related to SCARBROUGH that he should confront his brother with the facts.

SCARBROUGH stated he confronted DONALD HOLLAND with the shortage and HOLLAND initially stated he did not know anything about it. SCARBROUGH then stated that upon checking the records more closely and by asking certain questions in the immediate area of Meadville found that HOLLAND had been operating a "hog operation" on the side and was using corn intended for SCARBROUGH'S broilers in his hog operation. Further checks by SCARBROUGH culminated in HOLLAND admitting selling in excess of 30 hogs and "pocketing the profits" at markets in Jackson and throughout the State of Mississippi. When SCARBROUGH asked him for an accounting of this hog operation, HOLLAND refused. SCARBROUGH initially angered at this deception, threatened HOLLAND with a law suit and with revealing the information to the Internal Revenue Service. However, SCARBROUGH related after consulting with his lawyers, found that the burden of proof rested with him in any type of law suit and because of this decided to settle for $13,000 total payment for the feed mill operation.

SCARBROUGH described HOLLAND as "one of the biggest crooks I dealt with and "I don't doubt anything he'll do." SCARBROUGH related that although he does not have anything on HOLLAND, he certainly does not doubt anything that he hears about HOLLAND's character.

In addition, SCARBROUGH stated that HOLLAND has an old Negro man working for him named HUGH D. ROLLINS, who has the reputation in the community of being a good, conscientious worker. SCARBROUGH stated that on several occasions he has tried to induce the Negro to leave the employ of HOLLAND and go to work for the local County Co-Op. ROLLINS is a close friend of SCARBROUGH and has confided to SCARBROUGH that he is afraid to leave the employ of HOLLAND because he is afraid that HOLLAND may do something to him or his family. SCARBROUGH stated that he doubted that ROLLINS would talk to the FBI because he is too afraid of HOLLAND to do so.

SCARBROUGH stated that he has no doubt that HOLLAND is a member of a Klan group in the Meadville, Mississippi, area and that more than likely he is a member in the "Wentworth Broup." SCARBROUGH also advised that HOLLAND is a close associate of one DOUGLAS LEONARD who farms near the Berryville Community located east of Meadville off Highway 98. He further stated he knew HOLLAND to be a veteran of the Korean Conflict and he believed he served in the U. S. Army.

In conclusion, SCARBROUGH stated that prior to HOLLAND'S purchase of his Pontiac Bonneville which he presently drives, HOLLAND owned a red Chevrolet, 1959 or 1960 model, four-door sedan, and he further recalled that HOLLAND, had purchased this red Chevrolet new from some unknown dealer in the immediate area
