DEACONS FOR DEFENSE AND JUSTICE, JONESBORO LOUISIANA, PERCY
 LEE BRADFORD, PRESIDENT, RM. Racial Matter

CHARLES JOSEPH FENTON, CORE REPRESENTATIVE AT JONESBORO
 LOUISIANA ADVISED THAT CAPTIONED ORGANIZATION HAS BEEN ORGANIZED IN JACKSON PARISH AT JONESBORO LOUISIANA AND THAT IT HAS FOR ITS PURPOSES MUCH THE SAME AS THOSE OF THE CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY (CORE) BUT THAT CAPTIONED ORGANIZATION IS MORE MILITANT THAN CORE AND THAT IT WOULD BE MORE INCLINED TO USE VIOLENCE IN DEALING WITH ANY VIOLENT OPPOSITION
 ENCOUNTERED IN CIVIL RIGHTS MATTERS. CAPTIONED ORGANIZATION HAS NIGHT PATROLS IN THE NEGRO SECTIONS OF JONESBORO AND FENTON BELIEVES THAT THESE NIGHT PATROLS ARE ARMED.

DEACONS FOR DEFENSE OF JUSTICE,
JONESBORO, LOUISIANA,
PERCY LEE BRADFORD, PRESIDENT

Charles Joseph Fenton, representative of Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) at Jonesboro, Louisiana, advised January 5, 1965 that an organization known as Deacons for Defense of Justice, with Percy Lee Bradford, Negro male, age about 44, as president, has been organized at Jonesboro, Louisiana. He stated that this organization was organized to promote Negroes' civil rights and that its purposes were much the same as those of CORE. He stated that whereas CORE is completely non-violent in its methods of dealing with civil rights matters, Deacons for Defense of Justice would be more militant and inclined to use violence in dealing with any violent opposition encountered. He stated that Deacons for Defense of Justice has night patrols in the Negro sections of Jonesboro and he feels that these night patrols are armed.

Rev. Frederick D. Kirkpatrick, member of the Deacons for Defense of Justice, advised this organization was a non-violent Negro movement organized exclusively within Jackson Parish, Louisiana. He stated its purpose was to promote justice for the Negro and followed the same principals as laid down by the CORE except its members would, if attacked, defend themselves by use of force.

He said this organization has two citizens band radios and walkie talkies used to communicate with one another in case violence against the Negro is initiated in Jackson Parish. He said there was between 250 and 300 members within the parish and they

THOMAS SAID THAT IF POLICE OFFICERS SEE NEGROES WHO ARE ARMED AS THE POLICE ARE, THE POLICE COULD BE EXPECTED TO PROBABLY BACK AWAY AND NOT AFFECT THE ARREST OF THE INDIVIDUAL.

DEACONS FOR DEFENSE AND JUSTICE

On February 22, 1965, a confidential source advised the following information concerning the captioned matter:

LA Source stated that it was learned that on the night of February 21, 1965, six Congress Of Racial Equality (CORE) members appeared at Bogalusa, at which time they held a meeting at the Negroes Labor Hall. This meeting was attended by several Bogalusa Negro leaders, namely, Robert Hicks, Albert Z. Young, McCloury Sampson, Charles Sims, Alton Davis, and one or two others not identified. He identified the CORE members as Reverend Frederick B. Kirkpatrick, Charles Fenton, Steven Miller, William Yates, Ernest Thomas, and another unidentified Negro. CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY

Source stated that Miller and Yates are well known to Bogalusa as they have been participating recently in desegregation activities; however, Kirkpatrick, Fenton, Thomas, along with the unidentified Negro, are believed to come from the vicinity of Jonesboro, Louisiana.

Source reported the main purpose of the meeting was to discuss an organization now being put together in Louisiana known as the Deacons for Defense and Justice (DDJ). The main speaker of the evening was believed to have been Ernest Thomas who discussed the fact that membership in the DDJ (strictly Negro), would cost $10 initiation fee and $2 per month. Ten per cent of the monies obtained from the local chapters would be channelled into the headquarters of the state organization which is now believed to be at Jonesboro, Louisiana.

It was explained the purpose of the money was to buy radio equipment, including walkie-talkies, citizens band equipment for automobiles, as well as ammunition, literature, and other equipment not identified. Discussed in considerable length was the putting of mobile citizens band radios into automobiles of Negro members, principally in Bogalusa. It was reported that Thomas went on to explain the DDJ intended to establish a code system whereby a state-wide communications set up could be created in order that, if Negroes in one community have difficulty, the Negroes could immediately call on the radio for assistance and get assistance. Thomas talked at length about the use and advantages of walkie-talkies and equipment for communication purposes.

Thomas then discussed a tendency on the part of Negroes to buy cheap weapons like a .22 caliber. Thomas pointed out that Negroes should buy substantial weapons, including a .306 caliber rifle. Thomas suggested that 12 or 16 gage shotguns were good for "close in work." Thomas said that if standardized gages were obtained, the Negroes in communities could buy shells by the case. Thomas said that Negroes should keep plenty of ammunition in their cars, in their homes, as they never knew when they would need the ammunition, and they were to be expected to be ready whenever they were called upon.

Thomas said that his group has contacts in Chicago and Houston for automatic weapons and mentioned a .50 caliber and .30 caliber machine gun.

Thomas stated, referring to the Ku Klux Klan and white people generally, that if the Ku Klux Klan or white people wanted violence, that "they intended to combat violence with violence; that they had no intention of starting anything themselves but wanted to be ready."

Thomas discussed at considerable length the advantages of having roving Negro patrols in the various communities so that should any Negro be arrested by a police officer, that the roving patrol, as witnesses to any arrest, could immediately defend the position of the arrested person. Thomas said that if police officers see Negroes who are armed as the police are, the police could be expected to probably back away and not affect the arrest of the individual.

Thomas discussed the need for members of this group, if they should join, to get together with their Negro leaders, the preachers, school teachers, and other responsible persons, and preach to and emphasize to their leaders that if their leaders do not go along with this activity, that they were not fit in the first place. Thomas pointed out if the local members of the DDJ were not successful in working on Negro leaders in the community and convincing them that they, referring to CORE, would do it for them.

A further membership meeting of the DDJ is scheduled at Bogalusa on Sunday, February 28, 1965, and all prospective members were requested to bring money, dues, and initiation fees.

Source advised that based upon this information, the Bogalusa City Administration felt that the DDJ would not be too successful from the stand point of membership and dues but were concerned about the difficulties discussions of this type would have among the Negro population in the Bogalusa community.

On the night of February 22, 1965, it was reported that Robert Hicks, a Negro leader in Bogalusa and active in CORE work, spoke before the Bogalusa Voters League at a meeting called to lend support to the Bogalusa Negro Communities Cooperation with the City Administration. Hicks discussed at great length the DDJ information as discussed the previous evening by Ernest Thomas. Hicks pointed out to the people in attendance, who were mostly teenage children, the advantages of arming themselves and discussed hand grenades, walkie-talkies, and explained generally what was stated the previous night by Ernest Thomas.

Hicks went into great detail concerning how young Negroes could defend themselves by converging on police officers if the police were trying to arrest Negroes and cause difficulty at the time of the arrest and prevent the Negro from being arrested.

This is an informative memorandum to report information obtained from the police, Bogalusa, Louisiana, and two sources in that city concerning steps presently under way to organize the Deacons for Defense and Justice (DDJ). At a meeting held at Bogalusa 2-21-65 which was for the purpose of discussing the initiation of the DDJ, several local Negro leaders were present including some members of the Congress Of Racial Equality (CORE). One Ernest Thomas did most of the talking and explained the collection of initiation fees and dues, which monies would be used to purchase radio equipment, walkie-talkies, literature and ammunition. Thomas discussed the types of weapons which Negroes should purchase and said the group had contacts in Chicago and Houston for automatic weapons. The general tenor of Thomas' was that Negroes should arm themselves, not only for defensive reasons, but that they should have roving patrols so that if a Negro was being arrested by a police officer, other Negroes could come to the aid of the arrested person. Thomas said that if the Ku Klux Klan and white people generally wanted violence, they intended to combat violence with violence.

[redacted] advised that upon information available the Bogalusa City Administration felt that the DDJ would not be too successful from the standpoint of membership and dues, but were concerned about the difficulties discussions of the type referred to above would have among the local Negro population.

On 2-22-65 Robert Hicks, a Bogalusa Negro leader active in CORE, spoke before the Bogalusa Voters' League. He discussed Thomas' remarks of the previous evening before the DDJ and pointed out to those in attendance, most of whom were teenagers, the advantages of arming themselves. Hicks went into detail concerning how young Negroes could defend themselves by converging on police officers at the time the arrest of a Negro is being made.

On February 24, 1965, [redacted] and temporary acting [redacted] informed as follows concerning the captioned organization:

b6
b7D

He stated that on the night of February 21, 1965, he had attended a meeting in the early evening of the 21 members of the Executive Committee of the Bogalusa Voters League. He stated that he had then gone to another meeting and had not been present at a meeting being held at the Bogalusa Labor Temple. He stated he subsequently found out that on the night of February 21, 1965, there had been a meeting attended by six members of Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), three of whom he knew were William Yates, Stephen Miller and a Charles Fenton. He stated there were three colored members of CORE also in attendance, but he did not know specifically who they were. (Steve)

He stated that he had no knowledge of the actual nature of the discussion of this particular group which met with some other Bogalusa Negro citizens; however, he learned of the results of this on the night of February 22, 1965, at which time they had a general meeting of the Bogalusa Voters League.

He stated on that occasion Robert Hicks, [redacted]
[redacted] Louisiana, took the floor and told the meeting which was attended by about fifty percent adults and fifty percent teenagers, of the plans of the Deacons for Defense and Justice.

DEACONS FOR DEFENSE AND JUSTICE
JONESBORO, LOUISIANA
PERCY LEE BRADFORD

In overhearing Hicks' discussion of this matter which Hicks had obviously learned from the CORE people at the Sunday evening meeting, the Deacons for Defense of Justice intended to organize a group to promote civil rights and its purposes were much the same as those of CORE, except that this group intended to purchase citizens band, radio walkie-talkies and other equipment for the purpose of communicating with one another in case of violence against Negroes in the Bogalusa community.

He stated that they talked, apparently at this meeting, about arming the Negro population in order that if any difficulty should arise with the police or with the Ku Klux Klan, or any other group, that the Negroes would be in a position to defend themselves and defend their fellow citizens who may be in some sort of difficulty.

[ ] advised that he personally was not in sympathy with this position or with this program and would not, under any circumstances, advocate that his people went along with arming themselves as in doing so, they would place themselves in the exact position that the Ku Klux Klan is doing, that of taking the law into their own hands.

b7D

He stated that through his organization, the Bogalusa Voters League, he would make no effort to back this type of program or plan, but desired to continue to work peaceably through his Bogalusa Voters League, through his Negro community, and through the Bogalusa City Council in order to bring about a complete and peaceful integration of the entire Bogalusa community.

He stated that plans to enroll Bogalusa citizens in the Deacons for Defense of Justice at $10.00 per person plus dues, probably would not receive a warm welcome at Bogalusa, although he personally realized that a certain segment of the population in the Negro community would be affected by this sort of talk and that he, representing the

JONESBORO, LOUISIANA
PERCY LEE BRADFORD

Bogalusa Voters League, was not in a position where he could appeal to these people on an intelligent level as this matter would be entirely emotional with them.

He stated that he hopes that he could do something to prevent development of this sort of activity in the Bogalusa community.

Robert Hicks, [REDACTED] Louisiana, advised on February 25, 1965, that on the night of February 21, 1965, a meeting was held at Bogalusa, Louisiana, among several of the local Negro citizens and six members of CORE who he identified as a Reverend Frederick Kirkpatrick, a Negro, Ernest Thomas, Negro, Charles Fenton, white, a Steve Miller, white, William Yates, white, and another Negro whose name he does not recall.

The nature of this meeting was to explain to the Bogalusa Negro community or its representatives, of the need for an organization to aid the Negro in protecting himself from elements in his community. He stated that this organization was to be known as the Deacons for the Defense of Justice and that the dues were to be $10.00 initiation fee and $2.00 per month per person. He stated that of this money a certain percentage would be contributed to the statewide headquarters which was to have been established at Jonesboro, Louisiana. He stated that one of the CORE workers, namely Reverend Kirkpatrick and Ernest Thomas, discussed the considerable length that the monies were to be used from the dues and initiation fees to pay radio equipment, including walkie-talkies, citizens band equipment, as well as ammunition and other various pieces of equipment. He stated that there was some discussion about the Negroes arming themselves and there was discussion about machine guns and purchase of machine guns as well as ammunition. He stated that he personally had discussed with the members of the Bogalusa Voters League on the night of February 22, 1965, the membership in this organization and tried to stimulate interest. He stated that he was not too sure at this time, however, as to whether this organization was a good thing in view of the discussion about weapons and ammunition and in essence, a new militant position. He stated that the members from CORE who had met with them had discussed the fact that they had a charter for this organization but that he, Hicks, had not yet seen the charter and he did not expect to take any further action as to actually soliciting membership until such time as he could see the charter, study it, and discuss it at some length with an attorney.

JONESBORO, LOUISIANA
PERCY LEE BRADFORD

Hicks indicated that there had been temporary persons elected by this group, but did not identify these temporary officers. He did, however, point out that there was to be an additional meeting of those people who were interested in the Deacons for Defense of Justice on Sunday night, February 28, 1965, but that he did not know at this time whether there would be any CORE representatives or whether the members from Jonesboro who had inaugurated this program would be and to further spell out the aims and purposes of the Deacons for Defense of Justice.

(William) La
On February 26, 1965, William John Yates, CORE Task Force Worker advised that on February 21, 1965, he, along with several other workers for CORE appeared at two meetings in Bogalusa, Louisiana, at which time he spoke to the local Negro population in attendance at these meetings concerning the above organization. Yates stated that this organization was originated in the Jonesboro, Louisiana, area during the Summer of 1964. He stated that he believes the purpose of this organization is to assist Negroes in securing their rights to protect their homes and their families. Yates stated that this organization assists and advises Negroes as to the procurement of arms as well as instructs them how to obtain legal counsel in the event of court appearances.

DEACONS FOR DEFENSE AND JUSTICE
JONESBORO, LOUISIANA
PERCY LEE BRADFORD

Yates stated that Robert Hicks, a local Negro leader in Bogalusa, Louisiana, is the representative of this organization in the Bogalusa area. Yates stated that on Monday, February 22, 1965, Robert Hicks addressed a meeting of the local Negroes in Bogalusa at which time he stated that the above captioned organization was being organized in the Bogalusa area.

Yates noted that Richard ~~X~~ Haley, Regional Director for CORE in the southeastern portion of the United States does not approve of the above captioned organization in that he feels that it is wrong for Negroes as part of an organization to secure arms, but feels that it is justifiable for individual Negro citizens to want to secure arms to defend their homes and families.

Yates was unable to furnish any information as to how the procurement of arms was handled by the Deacons for Defense and Justice. Yates stated that he believes that this organization will be formed in the Bogalusa area in the near future.

On March 1, 1965, The Chief of Police, Claxton Knight, Bogalusa, Louisiana Police Department, informed that on the night of February 28, 1965, a volunteer meeting of the Deacons For Defense and Justice met at the Bogalusa Colored Union Hall, located on Third Avenue. He stated that this group which met was entirely local and was obviously a group which was following up the meeting of the previous week, which meeting had been attended by Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) members, and individuals from Jonesboro, Louisiana.

Chief Knight stated that this meeting was obviously not attended by a sufficient number of Bogalusa Negro population to indicate much interest on the part of Bogalusa Negroes in the Deacons for Defense and Justice.

He provided the following names of those individuals who attended this meeting, which lasted approximately 35 or 40 minutes. He stated a total of 14 Negroes attended this meeting. Four of these individuals he was unable to identify. The others are as follows:

Andrew Smith, [redacted] employed at Crown-Zellerbach Corporation, Bogalusa.

Willie J. Bickham, [redacted] employed at Hoffman Electric Supply Co., Bogalusa.

Mr. Harold Reis of the Department telephonically advised that Governor LeRoy Collins, Director of the Community Relations Service, was in to see the Attorney General this morning at which time Collins expressed a great deal of concern with reference to an organization known as the Deacons for Defense and Justice which is located in Jonesboro, Louisiana. He advised that the organization is led by an extremely militant Negro whose name he didn't know and is the Negro counterpart of the Minute Men. He was desirous of being furnished any background information we have on this organization and of any investigation we are conducting concerning the same.

A check with the Domestic Intelligence Division concerning this organization reveals our New Orleans Office has previously advised concerning the Deacons for Defense and Justice. Information was furnished to the Civil Rights Division and the Internal Security Division of the Department by memoranda dated February 24, 1965, and March 4, 1965. The Deacons for Defense and Justice is a recently formed Negro organization in the State of Louisiana, including members of CORE and individuals from Jonesboro, Louisiana. At a meeting February 21, 1965, at Bogalusa, Louisiana, one Ernest Thomas who did most of the talking stated that the collection of initiation fees and dues are to be used to purchase radio equipment, walkie-talkies, literature and ammunition. Thomas pointed out Negroes should arm themselves, not only for defensive reasons, but that the Negroes should have roving patrols so that if a Negro was being arrested by a Immediate investigation was initiated by the field because of the indicated potential for violence. Investigation is to include the identification of Ernest Thomas and the activity of the organization.

Information has been furnished to Secret Service as well as military intelligence concerning this group. Investigation is being closely followed.

ACTION:

Since information concerning the Deacons for Defense and Justice has already been furnished to the Department, Mr. Reis' attention will be called to the previous memoranda furnished to the Civil Rights Division and the Internal Security Division.

On 3/1/65, [ ] La., advised that he was providing the following information on a highly confidential basis to SA FRANK A SASS, JR., primarily because only four individuals are aware of the information set forth below.

b7D

[ ] stated that he has the utmost confidence in the FBI but that he does not want any other governmental agency to know the following information at this time. He stated that on 3/1/65, he, [ ], Commissioner of Public Safety ARNOLD SPIERS, Colonel THOMAS BURBANK, Director of Public Safety and Superintendent of Louisiana State Police, met with Louisiana Governor JOHN MC KEITHEN at Baton Rouge, La. At that time two principal subjects were discussed, one being the Deacons for Defense and Justice, the other being the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (OKKKK).

b7D

At this time [ ] stated that the details of a meeting between several members of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) and two or three other colored individuals from Jonesboro, Louisiana, who met with Bogalusa Negroes on 2/21/65, was discussed. [ ] stated that the Governor and Colonel BURBANK were made aware of the existence of this organization, The Deacons for Defense and Justice in Louisiana, and of its possible propensity for violence depending upon the degree of organization that may be established in the future. He stated that the Governor was made aware of information developed at Bogalusa concerning Negroes belonging to this organization, arming themselves, etc.

b7D

He stated that he also pointed out to the Governor the importance of keeping these types of individuals and this type of organization out of the Bogalusa area, in view of the strength of the Ku Klux Klan in that area. He stated that Governor Mc Keithen was very much concerned about this group and informed him, [ ], that he would discuss this matter with Louisiana State Attorney General, JACK GREMILLION, to see if any Louisiana State Statutes might be applied to break up this organization prior to it actually getting underway.

b7D

NO [ ] :sjt

b3
b7E

[ ] stated that they also discussed at some length the OKKKK, particularly as this pertained to Bogalusa, which he stated is without question the better organized units of all units in Louisiana.

b7D

He stated that they discussed together in some detail the advantages and disadvantages of making a request through the Louisiana Congressional Delegates, including Congressman HALE BOGGS, Senator ALLAN J. ELLENDER, Senator RUSSELL LONG, Congressman JAMES H. MORRISON, and others to apply pressure to some governmental investigative body with subpoena powers to investigate this organization in Louisiana. [ ] stated the main feeling of the Governor was that if a governmental agency with subpoena power could inquire into the structure of the OKKKK and into its purposes and aims with respect to its violence potential, that this may cause the organization to dissolve as a result of its exposure to the public.

b7D

[ ] emphasized that this matter is only in the talking stages at this time, but that he hoped that possibly some decision could be arrived at in the next couple of weeks as to the merits of making such a request. He stated that it was agreed that no action would be taken by the Governor until such time as the Governor again communicated with him and informed him of his plans.

b7D

In this respect, [ ] stated that he personally would more than welcome some Federal investigative body with subpoena powers delving into the OKKKK, particularly as that will affect his community. He stated that his hands are completely tied, in this respect, and in fact, he feels that his personal reputation has been considerably damaged by allegations and inferences that he personally is a member of the OKKKK, which he stated is definitely not true. He stated that he could swear almost without question that none of the members of his City Council were members of the OKKKK, with the exception of his City Attorney, ROBERT T. RESTER. In this respect, however, he stated that he could not prove that RESTER was a member of the OKKKK, but knew from his sources and friends that RESTER was so involved.

b7D

NO [ ]:sjt

b3
b7E

[ ] informed that it was true that he knew many individuals who he felt were members of the Klan, as did the members of his City Council, which he stated possibly gave people "guilt by association" impression.

b7D

He stated that he has aired publicly through the news media at Bogalusa and through the local radio station his views whenever possible, but that somehow the national press already created a bad image of the Bogalusa community as a whole, and he felt that possibly some personal appearance before a government investigative body could correct some of this misunderstanding.

[ ] stated that he is well aware of the FBI's responsibility with respect to organizations as The Deacons for Defense and Justice, and the OKKKK. He stated that he was most willing to co-operate at all times with the FBI, as he felt that the FBI had been of much assistance to his Police Department already in keeping the local authorities advised of potential demonstrations, etc. He stated that he would immediately advise the FBI of any information which he received from the Governor which would indicate the Governor's plans.

This matter is being followed on a continuing basis at Bogalusa and if any plans are finalized, the Bureau will be informed by letterhead memorandum suitable for dissemination.

As indicated in my previous memorandum today, Mr. Reis requested information concerning the above-captioned organization in view of a conversation which Governor LeRoy Collins, Director of the Community Relations Service, had with the Attorney General this morning. Mr. Reis was referred to our memoranda dated February 24, and March 4, 1965, advising the Department concerning this extremely militant Negro organization.

Mr. Reis was appreciative of this information and advised that he had now received additional information that Governor Collins or his aide, Jerome Heilbron, had received a tip that the Deacons for Defense and Justice, Jonesboro, Louisiana, would do something "drastic" in the next two or three days. He was unable to furnish any specifics but requested that Governor Collins be contacted to see what specifics he had concerning this matter.

ACTION

That Governor Collins be contacted to determine the specifics of the alleged information in his possession that the Deacons for Defense and Justice would do something drastic in the next two or three days and that the New Orleans Office be immediately alerted to this information for their assistance in closely following this organization -- if approved, to be handled by the Domestic Intelligence Division.

This is to advise you of the nature of captioned organization and its current activities. The Deacons for Defense and Justice is a Negro group allegedly being formed in the State of Louisiana. Its headquarters are believed to be in Jonesboro, Louisiana. Its President is reportedly Percy Lee Bradford and its Vice President is reportedly Earnest Thomas. Thomas has told Negroes that they should arm and form roving patrols which will assist any Negroes who may be arrested. Initiation fees and dues of this alleged group are to be used to purchase ammunition, radio equipment and literature. The New Orleans Office is conducting a current investigation of this alleged group to determine if it is in existence, the identities of its leadership and its specific activities. Currently, the Deacons for Defense and Justice appear to be interested in a demonstration which has been occurring at the Jackson High School (Negro), Jonesboro, Louisiana. Students there have been demonstrating in protest of the rumored dismissal of the Athletic Coach F. D. Kirkpatrick for his recent activity in behalf of civil rights. School authorities have not made known whether the coach is to be dismissed or the basis for such a dismissal.

Leroy Collins, Director, Community Relations Service, Department of Commerce, has expressed an interest in captioned organization. Pertinent information has been furnished to the Community Relations Service, Civil Rights Division and Internal Security Division of the Department, as well as military intelligence agencies and appropriate state and local authorities in the State of Louisiana.

New Orleans is following this matter closely and has been instructed to expedite its investigation of the captioned organization. We have been pressing for early interviews of Bradford and Thomas for the deterrent value such interviews might have. New Orleans has advised that since Bradford and Thomas are taking an active part in negotiations through the Community Relations Service with school authorities in an effort to resolve this dispute, they will not be interviewed until after a meeting 3/22/65 of the school board and the leaders of factions involved. This seems reasonable because otherwise we might be injecting ourselves into the middle of this school dispute. We are continuing to press vigorously our investigation of captioned organization.

DEACONS OF DEFENSE AND JUSTICE, INC.
JONESBORO, LOUISIANA

From July 1964 to October 9, 1964 the town of Jonesboro, Louisiana, had 5 Negro special police officers, during racial demonstrations and testing of Public Accommodations and Public Facilities under the Civil Rights Act of 1964. Three of the officers were Rev. Frederick Douglas Kirkpatrick, Coach at Jackson High School, Jonesboro, Louisiana, Henry Collins Amos, and Elmo Jacobs -- all of whom had other employment and served on a part-time basis without pay. These Negro special police positions were discontinued by the town of Jonesboro on October 9, 1964.

Henry Collins Amos advised on January 5, 1965 the Negroes organized a Negro Patrol of the Negro section of town to guard against such incidents as a Ku Klux Klan motor parade through the Negro section which occurred July 16, 1964 also to remove the fear among Negroes of incidents that might occur from Klansmen going into the Negro Section for possible acts of reprisal in the Negro section or persons exercising their rights, particularly rights granted under the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

Amos stated that he felt that the Negro section was in need of police protection, which he said could not be had from the regular law enforcement officers of the area, particularly after the special Negro police were discontinued. Amos stated that the name the group adopted was Deacons for Defense and Justice (later incorporated under the name Deacons of Defense and Justice, Inc., (DDJ). Amos stated that the leader of the group was Percy Lee Bradford. Amos said that DDJ patrols were not ordinarily armed but that they were to have available to them firearms if needed for self-defense.

Reverend Frederick Douglas Kirkpatrick, Coach, Jackson High School, Jonesboro, advised on January 5, 1965 that DDJ was a non-violent organization within Jackson Parish formed to promote justice for the Negro. Kirkpatrick stated that the DDJ followed the same principals as laid down by the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), except its members would, if attacked, defend themselves by use of force. He said the DDJ had two citizens band radios and two walkie talkies to be used to communicate with one another in case violence against a Negro should be initiated in Jackson Parish. Kirkpatrick stated that there were between 250 and 300 members of DDJ within the parish; he said that they did not carry arms, although possession of shotguns and rifles for hunting is commonplace in the area. He said that the following were leaders at that time of DDJ, which was not chartered, or incorporated, at that time:

B. APPROX [redacted]

President: Percy Lee Bradford
Vice President: Henry Collins Amos
Secretary: Frederick Douglas Kirkpatrick
Finance Secretary: Allen Scherrah
Group Leaders: Earnest Thomas, Charles Cosetta
Jackson, Odie Martin, Olin Satcher, E. L. Patterson.

On January 5, 1965 Chief Adrian G. Peevy, Jonesboro Police Department, and Sheriff Newt T. Loe, Jackson Parish Sheriff's Office, Jonesboro, advised that they were aware of the existence of such a group as DDJ and were aware of patrols of such a group.

Charles Joseph Fenton, representative of CORE at Jonesboro, Louisiana, advised January 5, 1965 that an organization known as Deacons for Defense of Justice, with Percy Lee Bradford, Negro male, age about 44, as president, has been organized at Jonesboro, Louisiana. He stated that this organization was organized to promote Negroes' civil rights and that its purposes were much the same as those of CORE. He stated that whereas CORE is completely non-violent in its methods of dealing with civil rights matters, DDJ would be more militant and inclined to use violence in dealing with any violent opposition encountered. He stated that the DDJ has night patrols in the Negro sections of Jonesboro and he feels that these night patrols are armed.

Following is a clipping from the New York Times, Sunday, February 21, 1965 under dateline February 19, 1965 at Jonesboro, Louisiana:

Armed Negroes Make Jonesboro an Unusual Town

By E. E. CVIEDGE

Feb. 19 —

To a stranger passing through the little town of 4,200 in the pine forests of northern Louisiana, there is little evidence that Jonesboro differs in any way from hundreds of other Southern communities where segregation remains the way of life. White residents say "hello" to each other and to white strangers when they pass on the sidewalk that connects the movie house, the feed and seed store, the auto accessory shops, and the main drug store. Negro residents edge toward the curb when they pass a white man, and their heads bow ever so slightly.

In Jonesboro, as in hundreds of other small towns throughout the Deep South, the 1954 Civil Rights Act is obeyed only under the threat of legal action. Most eating places remain segregated; some have become "private clubs." There is a "colored" sign over a ticket window in the bus station, and there are similar signs over the restrooms of the dimly lighted courthouse.

But Jonesboro is different. Here the Negroes, who make up about a third of the population, have organized themselves in a mutual protection association, employing guns and shortwave radios.

Organized Last Summer

The organization, called the Deacons for Defense and Justice, was organized quietly last summer.

Percy Lee Bradford, a stockroom worker and the founder and president of the Deacons, said harassment from the Ku Klux Klan and allied groups had decreased markedly since the Deacons made their philosophy known. So far, the guns have not been fired.

He expressed the philosophy simply: "We pray a lot, but we stay alert, too."

The Deacons were formed spontaneously their leaders said, after young field workers for the Congress of Racial Equality came to Jonesboro to start a civil rights campaign. White youths visited the CORE headquarters and threatened to return with 125 others to make trouble.

Within minutes the word had spread through the Negro neighborhood, which is called life the Quarters and which consists of rows of unpainted frame houses with tin roofs, set closely together on poorly paved streets. Dozens of Negroes appeared on the streets, carrying guns. Most rural Southerners, regardless of race or income level, own at least one gun.

Eminent Patrols

That was the informal beginning of the Deacons. Now the organization, which is estimated to have between 45 and 150 active members, patrols the Quarters diligently.

A white visitor to the CORE office this week was observed entering the neighborhood; a phone call immediately went to Charles Fenton, a 23-year-old white New York native who is a CORE field worker.

"They just wanted to make sure everything was all right," said the tall, slim youth with a smile as he called off the potential alert.

Had the visitor desired to make trouble, several dozen Deacons would have been expected to arrive at the CORE office within minutes, carrying guns and portable citizens-band radios. Among them would have been a young Negro man, a former platoon sergeant in the Army, who is Mr. Fenton's self-assigned, personal bodyguard.

"I wouldn't let anything happen to that boy," said the body Negroes testing the Deacons guard. "He's just like a brother line of public accommodations to me."

As a CORE worker, Mr. Fenton believes in nonviolence. He has had to carefully explain his feelings to the Deacons, some of whom could not immediately understand why Mr. Fenton didn't want them to bring their weapons into the office.

"I hope that they will become a civil organization," he said, "bettering the community and eventually making the defense part of it obsolete. They want to extend their efforts to include other things—negotiating with downtown, becoming more active in Jonesboro's political life."

"But still, no one can tell what would have happened here, if the Deacons hadn't formed their own ideas of protection."

Mr. Fenton came here last summer, as hundreds of other rights workers came to the South, to assist Negroes in registering to vote, to help in desegregation attempts, and to try to organize Negro residents around their grievances.

Many of Jonesboro's residents, Negro and white, earn their livings from the forests that surround their homes. Two large corporations, the Olin-Matheson Chemical Company and Matheson Chemical Company, have plants here that continue a tradition of lumbering that was started during the Civil War.

The Negroes complain that they can hardly expect to hold anything but menial jobs. The median family income in Jackson Parish, in 1960 for example, was $3,632 for Negroes, it was $5,194 for whites.

Mr. Fenton expresses delight over the organization of the Deacons, because it represents an indigenous organization—one of the kind that declined to comment on the Deacons to a reporter. He said: "If I have anything to give out, I'd give it to newspaper boys around here. We got boys in Shreveport and Monroe who see things the way we do, and I give them the word."

One member of the Deacons observed: "If it hadn't been for this club, doubtless this boy would have been lynched."

So far, much of the white community declines to acknowledge the existence of the group to outsiders who come asking questions. It is obvious, however, that the Deacons are widely known and somewhat feared here.

Sheriff Newt Lee of Jackson Parish, of which Jonesboro is the seat, declined to comment on the Deacons to a reporter. He said: "If I have anything to give out, I'd give it to newspaper boys around here. We got boys in Shreveport and Monroe who see things the way we do, and I give them the word."

NO 157-3290

Chief Deputy Sheriff James Van Beasley, Jackson Parish Sheriff's Office, Jonesboro, advised on March 20, 1965 that the Sheriff's Office had been aware of the existence of such an organization as DDJ for about three or four months and had seen Negro men apparently on patrol, or on guard in areas of testing of public accommodations by Negroes under the Civil Rights Act of 1964. He stated that the Negro men most often observed on the apparent patrols or guard details included Percy Lee Bradford, Earnest Thomas, Frederick Douglas Kirkpatrick, Cosetta Jackson, Elmo Jacobs, Olin Satcher, and Henry Collins Amos.

Beasley stated also that an article had been submitted from Jonesboro and published in the New York Times on February 21, 1965 recounting real or imaginary activities of DDJ, and in the article statements were made that members of DDJ were armed and equipped with citizens band (CB) radios. Beasley stated that transmissions by Negroes on CB radios had been monitored on many occasions at Jonesboro, indicating that the Negro patrols and guard details were on duty, but no record had been kept of such transmissions that were monitored.

Beasley stated that on January 30, 1965 about 10 unknown white persons were visiting in Jonesboro at the CORE office during the day and that night they were at the Minute Spot, a Negro cafe, along with Percy Lee Bradford, Earnest Thomas, Elmo Jacobs, Lee Gilbert, and other Negroes. He stated that activities of that day indicated that the Negroes had been providing patrols and guards in connection with the visiting white persons and that night, just before midnight, Deputies Beasley, Douglas McBride, and M. J. Walker, drove by the Minute Spot Cafe and observed Bradford, Thomas, Amos, Jacobs, and Lee Gilbert standing in front of the cafe. Gilbert was holding in his hands a shotgun, and the officers stopped and arrested him. Gilbert claimed that the shotgun was not his and that he was merely holding it, but he gave no information on whose gun it was or whom he got it from. Recovered from him was a 12 gauge shotgun loaded with a "ring" shell, and eight other "ring" shells were recovered from his pockets. A "ring" shell was described as a shotgun shell with a cut ring around the shell, so that when the shell is discharged in the gun, not only are the pellets expelled through the gun barrel, but a portion of the shell casing is discharged with the load, making a large slug-type projectile. Beasley stated that Gilbert was in the presence of Bradford, Thomas, [redacted], and Jacobs, when he was arrested, and that they arrived at the jail promptly to bond him out after he was charged with displaying a dangerous weapon in a public place while under the influence of intoxicants. He said that Gilbert later entered a plea of guilty to the charge.

b7D

Beasley stated that he felt reasonably sure that these patrols and guard details were armed, because on recent occasions some of those most active had been arrested and loaded firearms had been recovered from them when arrested.

Beasley stated that a Mrs. Womack, who resides near Jonesboro City Hall, observed Cosetta Jackson leave his taxi near city hall during the period of police roadblocks on March 11, 1965 and walk toward the Negro section; he said she observed Jackson return to the taxi later carrying a rifle. Beasley stated that Jackson was arrested on March 15, 1965 for carrying a concealed weapon, and at that time there were recovered from him a .22 caliber automatic rifle and a four-barrel .22 caliber pistol, both loaded; recovered from him also at the time of arrest were two walkie talkie CB radios.

Beasley stated that Olin Satcher was arrested on March 11, 1965 for resisting an officer and carrying a concealed weapon, and at the time of arrest there was recovered from him a .22 caliber automatic rifle, loaded, which Satcher had been carrying in his car during the period of the demonstrations at Jackson High School (Negro) in Jonesboro.

James W. Dade, [redacted], retired teacher, and Mrs. Edward Farley, teacher at Hawk Elementary School, Jonesboro, member and chairwoman, respectively, of the Grievance Committee selected to represent the Negroes in connection with presentation of grievances to the Jackson Parish School Board relative to the demonstrations at Jackson High School, advised on March 17, 1965 that Percy Lee Bradford and Earnest Thomas spoke out against the proposal of the school board that the students discontinue demonstrations and return to classes as a condition of the School Board's acceptance of the proposal to meet with the Negroes at Jackson High School on March 22, 1965. Mrs. Farley supported the effort to get the students to discontinue demonstrations on March 17, 1965 as a basis for the meeting with the School Board, but because in part, at least, of the influence of Bradford and Thomas, President and Vice President, respectively of DDJ the demonstrations continued.

NO 157-3290

NO 157-3290

On March 24, 1965, HENRY COLLINS AMOS was contacted and interviewed regarding another matter at his office behind the Amos Gulf Service Station, Beach Springs Road, Jonesboro, Louisiana. Amos voluntarily furnished information that he is a member of Deacons of Defense and Justice, Inc. (DDJ), Jonesboro, which he described as a civic organization dedicated to civic improvement in the Negro community and to protection of the civil rights of persons in the Negro community. Amos stated that DDJ is entirely non-violent, but that some of the members have firearms for self-defense and for protection against persons, possibly connected with the Ku Klux Klan, who might go to the Negro section of town to engage in violence. There was observed a double-barrel shotgun, a single-barrel shotgun, a .30 caliber rifle and a .22 caliber rifle all standing in the corner of the office used by Amos and also used as headquarters of DDJ. The .30 caliber rifle was observed to have the name Charlie White taped on it. During the conversation with Amos, it was observed that Elmo Jacobs walked into the office, and Amos handed him a loaded .45 caliber revolver in a leather holster from the desk drawer.

Amos stated that members of the DDJ do not engage in armed patrols, but that the stories of their armed patrols were given out to discourage klansmen and persons of that kind from going into the Negro section to cause trouble. He stated that there have been a number of crosses burned in the Negro section within the last year or two, and that one night in July, 1964, a motorcade of about 30 cars with persons wearing hoods and white robes drove through the Negro section of town, led by a police car of the Jonesboro Police Department.

Amos took from his desk a copy of the charter of DDJ, and he stated that the officers and members of the Board of Directors of the organization are responsible, civic-minded residents of Jonesboro. He stated that the organization has a very limited membership, although it had made claim of a very large membership in order to be more effective in discouraging persons from entering the Negro section for the purpose of causing trouble.

Amos stated that he, Elmo Jacobs, Casetta Jackson, and Earnest Thomas, as representatives of DDJ, had a meeting with Mayor L. O. Tait and Chief of Police Adrian G. Peevy, Jonesboro, Louisiana, on the morning of March 24, 1965, and presented to them a plan for civil improvement of the Negro section of Jonesboro, including a clean-up drive and a plan for street signs and house numbers throughout the Negro section.

NO 157-3290

Amos stated that DDJ definitely does not advocate violence and that the use of firearms would be approved only for self-defense or for use to prevent klansmen or organized groups from entering the Negro section to beat up a resident of the area or to engage in acts of violence against a resident of the area. Amos stated that he felt that leaders of DDJ would be glad to furnish information to the FBI about the DDJ.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Enclosed are some clippings taken from the Des Moines Sunday Register, Des Moines, Iowa, relating to the Deacons, an organization headed up by one Ernest Thomas, Jonesboro, Louisiana.

This organization seems to be patterned after all similar groups such as Minutemen, KKK and similar groups which parade under the guise of being a defensive organizations. It is a Negro organization and purports to take the law into its own hand rather than permit local, state and federal officials and courts to handle this. Armed with high powered weapons, some of which have great fire power, such groups unless kept under rigid surveillance and control could lead to bloodshed and anarchy.

It is also surprising the apparent ease with which these people obtained these weapons when they are denied to the average citizen.

Some of my friends are deeply disturbed by this organization as well as other similar armed mobs. Hence the reason for this letter.

I am not interested in what has been found out about this group but only if it has come to your attention and is receiving investigative attention.

Please be advised your support out this way is very strong and unwavering. People still have the greatest confidence in the FBI and in these troublesome times provides an anchor to which people can tie.

Wishing you many more years of continued success.

Very truly yours,

ARMED DIXIE Page 1 NEGRO LEAGUE IS SPREADING

50 Chapters Now
In 3 States

By Roy Reed

BOGALUSA, LA.—An armed league of Negroes, formed to defend Negroes against white terrorism, is spreading across the South.

The Deacons for Defense and Justice, born last summer in northern Louisiana, has crossed the Mississippi River to Mississippi and Alabama and plans to move into every Southern state.

The Deacons have guns and they have shown they are willing to use them. Twice in Louisiana they have opened fire on harassing whites.

The organization raises a hard question for advocates of non-violence. Should a civil rights organization committed to non-violence align itself with the Deacons and accept its services, as one organization has done, at least tacitly if not by design?

Doubt Law

The Deacons are causing concern among law enforcement authorities in Louisiana. The organization was formed largely out of a belief that Negroes could not expect impartial treatment from white lawmen and that, if they were to be defended against church burnings, bombings, beatings, killings and terrorism, they would have to do it themselves.

Earnest Thomas of Jonesboro, La., the 32-year-old vice-president and organizer of the Deacons, said Friday that the organization had 50 to 55 chapters in various stages of organization in Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama.

He declined to disclose the number of members. Outsiders have guessed from 5,000 to 15,000, he said, but he would not indicate that either figure was correct.

The main strength is in Louisiana. The incursions across the Mississippi appear to be tentative and exploratory, with considerable organizational work still to be done.

Thomas said the Deacons could spread to every Southern state in six or seven months "with hard work."

of the murder of O'Neal Moore, one of Washington Parish's first Negro deputy sheriffs. Many Deacon chapters are in towns that have CORE staffers at work.

Richard Haley of New Orleans, the southern director of the Congress of Racial Equality, said the connection between the two organizations began accidentally at Jonesboro when CORE discovered that its workers were safer with the Deacons around.

Thomas said the Deacons were armed with rifles and pistols.

"Everybody owns his own piece," he said. The organization provides ammunition, which it buys in quantity for savings.

He hopes to standardize weapons to effect further savings. He favors the 30-caliber Army carbine and the 38-caliber pistol. Some members have automatic carbines that will fire 30 rounds like a machine gun. Most now use shotguns, Thomas said.

Thomas and Haley share a concern that the Deacons may be painted as aggressive and trigger-happy. They were organized strictly for defense and they are highly disciplined, Thomas said.

One of their main jobs is to protect civil rights workers and volunteers participating in civil rights activities. A person knowingly exposes himself to white violence when he walks a picket line. But when he goes to bed at night he is entitled to rest without worry, and that's where the Deacons come in, Thomas said.

Started in March

With Percy Lee Bradford of Jonesboro as president, the Deacons were incorporated in March as a non-profit corporation in Louisiana.

The idea started last summer in Jonesboro after a Ku Klux Klan parade through a Negro street, Thomas said. He said the Klan rode through the street throwing out leaflets with a Jonesboro police escort.

"We decided that if the power structure would do that for the Klan, then we had better do something for ourselves," he said.

BOGALUSA, LA. (AP)—Gov. John J. McKeithen, in a tough mood over racial troubles here, offered a $25,000 cash reward Saturday to help crack the ambush slaying of a Negro deputy.

A report was then given by Max Henderson on the prospective purchase of shooting jackets and jacket arm patches and all present voted unanimously for the purchase of the jackets and the patches. (X):

According to source number one, Richard Henry showed those present a newspaper clipping which he stated he had taken from the Sunday edition of June 6, 1965, of the "Detroit Free Press", a newspaper published daily in Detroit. Henry said he might try to telephonically contact either Percy Lee Bradford, the President of "The Deacons" or Ernest Thomas, Vice-President of "The Deacons". (S)

APPENDIX

REVOLUTIONARY ACTION MOVEMENT (RAM)

On November 3, 1964, a source made available a document entitled, "The Revolutionary Action Movement Manifesto", the document having been obtained by the source from an individual known to be a member of RAM.

This document stated, in part, that RAM was officially organized in the Winter of 1963, by Afro-Americans who support the revolutionary objectives of ROBERT F. WILLIAMS, now residing in Cuba, and his concept of organized violence to achieve the liberation of the Afro-American people in the United States. This Manifesto reflected that RAM had oriented its program to one of education and political revolution and the organization of a "black" political party with revolutionary objectives, having recognized the need for a "black revolution" that could and would seize power. RAM philosophy is described in this document as one of revolutionary nationalism, that is, one involving the struggles of the non-white races of the world against exploitation and enslavement by the white capitalist and imperialist nations.

Regarding WILLIAMS, above, it should be noted that on August 28, 1961, a Federal warrant was issued at Charlotte, North Carolina, charging him with Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution for the Crime of Kidnapping. Subsequent to the issuance of this warrant, WILLIAMS fled the United States to Cuba, where he now publishes a monthly newsletter entitled "The Crusader" from Havana.

On November 16, 1965, a second source advised that he learned recently from a RAM member that the organization was begun in Detroit, Michigan, largely under the impetus of DON FREEMAN, Cleveland, Ohio, described as the "Father" of RAM and referred to as RAM's "Black Stalin". FREEMAN now serves as RAM Chairman, with MAXWELL STANFORD, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, serving RAM as Field Chairman. This second source advised that there is no formal headquarters, as such, for RAM at present, but that headquarters are, in effect, with FREEMAN since he plays a dominant role in the leadership and directs the policies and activities of the organization.

This second source, in September, 1964, advised that RAM is dedicated to the overthrow of the capitalist system in the United States, by violence if necessary, and to its replacement by a socialistic system oriented toward the Chinese Communist interpretation of Marxism-Leninism. RAM is entirely non-white in membership, clandestine in nature, and owes its primary allegiance to the "Bandung World", that is, the non-white races of the world, rather than to any national entity, as such.

To date, according to the second source, in November, 1964, RAM has organized units and membership in several of the larger cities in the United States east of the Mississippi River, and the organization is currently active, attempting to recruit new members and expand its sphere of influence.

B. APPROX. 1914

A Special Agent of the FBI viewed the "Louis Lomax TV Show," Channel 11, Los Angeles, California, beginning 11 p.m., Sunday night, June 13, 1965. Charles Sims, the featured guest, described himself as "The Man" in "The Deacons" in Bogalusa, Louisiana, saying he was 41 years old, a native of Bogalusa, Louisiana, had finished one year of high school, had served four years and five months in the U. S. Army attaining the rank of Technical Sergeant. He had sold industrial insurance prior to becoming associated with "The Deacons" and currently is working as an underwriter for a builders' insurance group.

Sims was observed to be a male, Negro, graying at the temples, balding on the top of his head and a scar was noticed in the middle of his chin. He appeared to be about 5'10" and of medium build.

Sims stated that "The Deacons" were organized about six months ago and that now there are from 50 to 60 chapters in three or four states. He declined to give the total numerical membership. He claimed "The Deacons" were organized for the purpose of protecting civil rights workers who could not obtain protection from local law enforcement authorities.

Sims stated that "The Deacons" are armed and are buying more arms with which to defend themselves. He admitted he is aware that it is not legal for them to carry weapons, but that he "would rather be caught with a weapon than without one in Bogalusa."

At the conclusion of the program, Lomax stated Sims would spend the next few days in Los Angeles meeting with various civil rights organizations.

Negro 'Deacons' Claim They Have Machine Guns, Grenades for 'War'

Exclusive to The Times from a Staff Writer

BOGALUSA, La.—At two secret meetings, both attended by representatives of the Congress of Racial Equality, the Deacons for Defense and Justice claimed to have machine guns and grenades for use in racial warfare.

The Los Angeles Times learned that the Bogalusa chapter of the armed Negro vigilante group discussed the use of those and other military-type weapons at its organizational meeting last Feb. 21 and again at a meeting the following day.

The Deacons insist their purpose is only defensive. However, at both February meetings they talked of preventing whites from going into Negro residential areas at night.

They also proposed making "sure" Negroes get fair trials and having armed confrontations with policemen when Negroes are arrested.

The rising militancy of the Deacons and the expansion of the movement is a new element in the civil rights struggle which federal and state officials view with increasing concern.

In Bogalusa a veteran police officer said:

"They are flirting with danger. The other night there was a little commotion and rumors of trouble in the colored community. The Deacons hopped in their cars and went zipping around the streets.

"If they keep that up they are bound to run into trouble."

CORE has co-operated with the Deacons in civil rights work in Bogalusa and Jonesboro. The secret order of Deacons was organized in Jonesboro last summer, reportedly with the aid of CORE members, to protect Negroes and civil rights workers from armed racists.

Earnest Thomas, 32, of Jonesboro, an official and full-time organizer of the Deacons, has told newsmen that there are now 50 to 55 chapters in Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama. Fund-raising units are being established in San Francisco, New York and other large cities, he said.

Thomas and another official of the parent group, Frederick Douglas Kirkpatrick, a high school coach in Jonesboro, came to Bogalusa in February to organize the local chapter.

With them were two white CORE workers—Steve Mil-

Combat 'Inevitable'

At the organizational meeting, Kirkpatrick discussed racial combat "as though it is inevitable. The Times learned.

"It takes violent blacks to combat these violent whites," he declared. "It takes non-violent whites and non-violent Negroes to sit down and bargain whenever the thing is over—and iron it out. I ain't about to.

"We're gonna be ready for 'em. We're gonna have to be ready to survive."

About 15 persons attended the organizational meeting at a Negro union hall here Feb. 21. They included Charles Sims, an ex-cab driver with a police record of assaults and concealed weapons, who was elected chapter president; A. Z. Young, president of the Bogalusa Civic and Voters League, elected vice president, and Robert Hicks, another Voters League official.

Both Sims and Hicks refused to tell a Times reporter whether Bogalusa Deacons are armed with machine guns and other military-type weapons.

"You know better than to ask me questions like that," said Sims.

Hicks said, "You don't tell your opponents what you're doing in any kind of conflict."

Powerful Weapons Urged

Kirkpatrick warned the new Deacons against "the tendency to buy something cheap, like a little ole .22-caliber rifle." He said, "That's no weapon—you need high-powered rifles."

"If you gonna use a pistol," he said, "use a .38. A shotgun is good to have for close-distance firing."

Dacons standardized their weapons, he said, making it practical to buy ammunition by the case.

"If you got only three or four bullets," he said, "you're out of the fight before it starts. Keep plenty of ammo at your house, in your car wherever you are. Be ready. I carry with me most all the time a hundred rounds."

Thomas interjected, "We have contacts in Chicago and Houston for automatic weapons—for .50-caliber and .30-caliber."

Someone asked, "What's that, machine guns?"

"Yeah—and we got grenades too," Thomas said. "We want to be ready if they want to be violent."

Radio Communications

Thomas explained that Deacons pay $10 initiation fees and $2 a month dues to their local chapters, which in turn pay the parent organization $100, plus 10% of dues. In return, he said, the parent group helps equip local chapters with two-way radio equipment.

The same week the Bogalusa chapter was formed, other Louisiana units were being established in Baton Rouge, New Iberia and Plaquemine.

Thomas told the Bogalusa group that Deacons chapters have inter-city radio communications so they can call for reinforcements in case of emergencies.

The use of walkie-talkies for patrol work was described by Yates and Miller, the CORE workers.

Kirkpatrick said Deacons would not "protect the man who is in the wrong," but would want to "check things out and make sure he gets a fair trial."

"The whites will pester you," commented one Deacon, "but when they see the hardware, they will take cover."

400 Attend Meeting

The mass meeting the following day was attended by about 400 persons. The grounds around the union hall were heavily patrolled by Deacons. No newsmen were present.

The formation of the Bogalusa chapter was announced by Hicks, who said that CORE had brought two officials of the Deacons from Jonesboro to organize the unit.

Hicks said the Bogalusa chapter would be "the same as in Jonesboro. They got radios, walkie-talkies, grenades, gas bombs, M-1 rifles. They set up a patrol system for the Negro community."

With the Deacons patrolling, Hicks said, "No white person will be allowed in a Negro area at night—salesmen or anybody." Thunderous applause and cheers greeted that remark.

Plan Regular Patrols

Hicks said, "We're gonna patrol. And, like policemen who are running you down and say, 'You speedin',' then we pull up to them and say, 'What's the matter,' and the policeman say, 'He's speedin'."

"And we say, 'We didn't see him speed,' and when the policemen see we armed just like they is—a white man's just like anybody else — they gonna let you go when they see you gonna attack them back."

The total strength of the Deacons is kept secret by the organization, but outside estimates have ranged from 5,000 to 15,000.

Hicks has estimated the number of Deacons here at 175 to 200. He said about 75% of them are veterans of the armed services and several are experts in the use of military weapons.

Bogalusa Police Chief Klaxton Knight says the Deacons increase the danger of racial explosion.

"My men are watching them closely," he said. "If one of them makes the wrong move he's gonna get his head blown off."

Sims prepared Saturday to leave for Los Angeles where he will be interviewed on a television program.

"I'd like to start a chapter of the Deacons in Los Angeles," he said. "Man, there's police brutality and people with that white supremacy stuff everywhere."

But Hicks said he does not see any need for a Los Angeles chapter.

"They got problems out there just like everywhere else," Hicks said, "but nobody's shooting at anybody in Los Angeles."

Use of Arms Necessary Because of Lack of Justice for Negro in South, He Says

BY PAUL WEEKS

Times Staff Writer

He sat immaculate in a gray business suit, white shirt and plain tie, sipping black coffee in a fashionable hotel bar on the Sunset Strip. It was mid-morning.

At 41, he is balding. His black face is set off with a trim mustache. He lit one king-sized cigaret after another.

He called the bartender "Carlyle" because that's what the few others present called him. And the bartender called him "Mr. Sims" as the bartender used "Mister" with the others.

"Mr. Sims" is Charles Sims, insurance man, and he might have been any other Negro insurance man visiting in Los Angeles.

From Bogalusa

But he is Charles Sims, president of the Bogalusa (La.) chapter of the Deacons of Defense and Justice, which reportedly has amassed machine guns and grenades and rifles for any eventuality in the southern racial confrontation.

Once his "reserve" with strangers was broken, Sims smiled easily and admitted it was the first time he'd had a lie on in three months.

"Sometimes," he said, "I've slept with my clothes on for weeks at a time — and sometimes I didn't even take my shoes off."

Noncommittal on the bit about the heavy artillery, Sims admitted the Deacons bear arms in violation of the state concealed weapons law.

Choice Taken

"I would rather be caught in Bogalusa," he said, "with concealed weapons than without them."

The Deacons' arms, he insisted, are defensive—not retaliatory — for he believes southern law enforcement and justice for the Negro are nonexistent.

But federal and state authorities are worried. The Deacons, they say, are playing with matches in a powder magazine. Regardless of his words, how can Sims or his associate leaders ward off explosion when mob passion flares?

"I know every man in the Deacons in Bogalusa. It's a small (pop. 5,000) town. Neither the Communists nor the FBI could get in. And I'm no Communist. The members respect the leadership. That's good enough."

View Differs

To the law, Sims' assurance of organizational discipline is a fraying thread. He sees it as a steel chain one minute—but then:

"One time the police went into a picket line of our people and they pulled up young girls' dresses with nightsticks and they put lighted cigarets on their straw 'freedom' hats. I didn't know what was going to happen."

The Deacons' leadership promptly met at Sims' house.

"I took out my gun and put it on the table. I told everybody, 'Put them down there.' They put their guns down. We went down to that picket line and we joined it. There was no more trouble."

While he side-stepped the direct question as to whether the Deacons have machine guns and grenades, he said, regarding how they could possibly be conceived to be "defensive."

"I saw all the blood and combat I ever want to see in the second World War. I saw innocent people killed, too. I don't want to see no more combat if I can get around it. But if ever there is a line coming at us with little or big weapons, I want to be ready."

But of more immediacy, he said civil rights workers—white or black—couldn't enter Bogalusa without the Deacons' armed cover. "We've protected more white men in Bogalusa than we ever protected colored."

Reviews Life

"But let's go back. I took what I wanted a long time. My folks could of sent me to any school I wanted. I didn't want that."

"I got in the infantry. I moved around. I saw things I never thought about in Bogalusa. I went to the library and I studied. I went to NCO school and came out a sergeant.

"One day in the Army I see a corporal who was a policeman in Bogalusa. He sees me in integrated places and all that. He was a die-hard. He got out of the service first. He sees me back in Bogalusa—me still in uniform.

"First thing he says, 'Remember, you're not in the Army now.' I made up my mind then not to be pushed around."

Sims has had a gun from that day to this.

On Dec. 6, 1959, a woman shot him and he almost died.

"I told my mother they got this woman in jail who shot me. I told her I was going to hit that woman. The only defense she had against me was a weapon. I said, 'If I die, don't you prosecute.'

"And when I got well, the district attorney says, 'You prosecute.' And I says, 'You know I can't read or write. Who going to sign?' (I write better left-handed than he write).

"I was confined to bed for 40 days and look up to the top of the house. You live your life over like that. I never took time out before to sit down and listen to my own thoughts."

Reconciliation Told

The woman who shot him "Is my girl right now, and I don't plan to swap her for nobody."

Long after the shooting, the Saturday night brawler "saw the police on TV dragging a woman like she was a piece of wood," and shortly he was in the Bogalusa Civic and Voters League and then the Deacons.

"The mayor invite CORE (Congress of Racial Equality) in for a test of integration in public places. They integrate for the test—they reject us after the test is over."

Sims' elbow, fascinated, sat author-commentator Louis Lomax, who invited

Sims here to be dissected on Lomax' Sunday night TV show.

Anticipates Interview

"He say on the phone he going to take me apart with questions," Sims laughed. "I don't know then if he white or black—but the way he say it, I trust him—and I don't answer questions I don't want to."

One last question: Did Sims want to organize a Deacons chapter in Los Angeles?

He paused. He smiled.

"I hadn't thought about it." He had thought coming here might raise money for the Deacons and he hadn't given much thought to whether his appearance here might arouse more hatred and terror than money.

"You might have need for them here. I know Bogalusa. I don't know Los Angeles."

(A day earlier, Sims told a Times reporter in Bogalusa he would like to start a chapter in Los Angeles, adding, "Man, there's police brutality and people with that white supremacy stuff everywhere.")

~~DEACONS FOR DEFENSE AND JUSTICE~~
HOMER, LOUISIANA CHAPTER

On June 10, 1965, GEORGE DODD, Negro male of [redacted], Louisiana, an individual active in Civil Rights activity in the Claiborne Parish, Louisiana area, indicated that a Chapter of the Deacons for Defense and Justice had been formed in Homer, Louisiana. DODD indicated that the organization, exclusively composed of local Negro males, had originally been formed by Negroes in Bogalusa and Jonesboro, Louisiana, as a self-protection group. DODD continued to explain that the organization was active in areas where Civil Rights activity had either actually or was presumed to potentially precipitate violence against Negroes by local white segregationists.

Mr. DODD said that the specific purpose of the group was to arm themselves and to "meet force with force" in such instances as local white men employed force or "terror tactics" against Negroes. Mr. DODD was emphatic in stressing that the organization intended no aggressive or violent action against any individual or group, and that no member of the organization would employ any type of force unless such action was initiated against him first.

Mr. DODD furnished a list of Negro male individuals who are currently members of the Homer, Louisiana Chapter of the organization and the positions they occupy, as follows:

GEORGE DODD	Homer, Louisiana	President
FRED LEWIS	Holsey Stop, Lisbon, Louisiana	Vice President
OTIS CHATHAN	Homer, Louisiana	Secretary

It is a Negro group formed in Louisiana with one Ernest Thomas as apparently its spokesman. He has advised Negroes that they should arm themselves and form roving patrols which will assist Negroes when Negroes are being arrested.

Enclosed for each office is one copy of a "Wall Street

For the information of Offices receiving this communication, the Deacons of Defense and Justice, Inc., is a Negro organization incorporated under the laws of the State of Louisiana with headquarters at Jonesboro, Louisiana. The Deacons has as one of its purposes, the arming of Negroes for protection against Klan violence and recently has been active in racial demonstrations in Bogalusa, Louisiana. In addition to the enclosed article, it has received wide publicity. It has been reported in news articles, such as the enclosed, that the Deacons has 50 to 55 chapters in several states; it allegedly has 5,000 to 15,000 members and has acquired a large number of weapons. Bureau investigation to date has not substantiated apparent exaggerated claims. At early organizational meetings in Bogalusa, Louisiana, in February, 1965, Deacon leaders boasted that they had sources who could furnish large amounts of weapons and ammunition including automatic weapons. It is necessary, therefore, that we obtain complete facts as to the organization's actual strength.

ReNOairtel of 3/26/65, sets forth leads to interview officers and leaders of the Deacons in an effort to obtain details concerning membership, arms and activities. New Orleans immediately conduct interviews of Deacons' officers with the purposes of obtaining complete information regarding the organization and discouraging illegal arming and illegal acts.

It is noted that the recipient offices, except New Orleans, advised by teletypes 7/14-15/65, that the organization did not exist in their territories. Nevertheless, all offices receiving this communication will immediately conduct appropriate investigation to determine if there are any Deacons' Chapters in their respective Divisions. Promptly advise the Bureau of the existence of any Deacons' Chapters or attempts to organize. Determine leadership, strength of membership, activities, and arms acquired. Be especially alert for any large supply of arms and their source. Disseminate all pertinent information to Army Intelligence and Secret Service, locally. Promptly submit letterhead memoranda concerning developments.

New Orleans, as Office of origin, is instructed to submit an investigative report within thirty days which should include results of all investigation to date.

NOTE:

Memorandum, Bumgardner to Sullivan, dated 7/14/65, answered an inquiry of the Director as to the accuracy of the "Wall Street Journal's" article, 7/12/65. This organization has been under continuous investigation since January, 1965, and regular dissemination has been made to the Intelligence Community, Secret Service, the Department and the Community Relations Service. The Director and Mr. Tolson have inquired as to the accuracy of an article in the 7-12-65 issue of "The Wall Street Journal" headed "More Dixie Negroes Buy Arms to Retaliate Against White Attacks." The article (attached) primarily concerns the Deacons of Defense and Justice which is an all-Negro secret organization centered in Louisiana with headquarters at Jonesboro.

Background of Organization

The Articles of Incorporation of the Deacons dated 3-5-65 in the State of Louisiana gave the purposes of the organization as including: to educate citizens, especially minority groups, in the Constitution and laws of the United States; to teach the obligations of citizenship; and to teach the defense of property and personal rights by "any and all honorable and legal means." At early organizational meetings, leaders discussed purposes as being the acquisition of weapons by Negroes in an effort to defend themselves against Klan violence and to provide protection not provided by local authorities. The Deacons Vice-President and organizer, Earnest Thomas, also told Negroes that they should arm and form roving patrols to assist any Negroes being arrested. The Deacons have worked closely with James Farmer and his organization, the Congress of Racial Equality, and with the Bogalusa Voters League, a local civil rights organization. The Deacons have been active in the recent demonstrations in Bogalusa. The Deacons have been the subject of a continuing Bureau investigation since January, 1965, and we have been regularly disseminating information concerning this organization to the Department, military intelligence, Secret Service and the Community Relations Service.

Analysis of Article

The following is based upon information in Bureau files including a current check with the field. The article is generally accurate in respect to the purposes of the organization, the factors which motivated its start, its close relationship with other groups such as the Congress of Racial Equality and the possession of firearms and walkie-talkie radio equipment by its members. There are, however, a number of inaccuracies and exaggerations in the article relating to the following: The article reports claims by some Deacons leaders of having over 50 chapters including some in neighboring states. Bureau investigation reveals chapters exist only in Jonesboro, Bogalusa and Homer, Louisiana; none in neighboring states. Article reports membership estimates as between 5,000 and 15,000. Bureau investigation indicates this highly exaggerated and membership probably no more than a few hundred.

Article reports Deacons possess firearms and this generally borne out by our investigation including actual observations by Bureau Agents. In this connection, it should be noted that most rural southerners possess firearms and that the carrying of rifles and pistols in rural areas is commonplace by both whites and Negroes. Such firearms and ammunition are readily available from local hardware, sporting goods stores, mail order houses and gun dealers. The carrying of firearms in Louisiana is permissible provided the weapons are not concealed on the person. A significant comment was made by a Deacons member, Collins<sup>X</sup> Amos, who said that Deacons members do not actually engage in armed patrols but that the story was circulated concerning such patrols in order to discourage Klansmen from causing trouble in Negro sections. Article reports that Bureau Agents are monitoring walkie-talkie transmissions of the Deacons. Although our New Orleans Office has equipment in Bogalusa capable of monitoring the Deacons walkie-talkies, no monitoring has been done of the Deacons.

Article reports a Deacons chapter in Varnado, seven miles north of Bogalusa, to protect the widow of O'Neal Moore, a Negro Deputy Sheriff slain June, 1965. Our investigation in the Varnado area including interviews with the Moore widow has not established that any protection is being undertaken by the Deacons and there is no known chapter located there.

OBSERVATIONS:

Inasmuch as the Deacons were apparently organized for defensive purposes as a retaliation to Klan acts against Negroes, it is not surprising that Deacons leaders would exaggerate its strength for the purpose of discouraging violence against Negroes and to help encourage increased membership. A striking illustration of the exaggeration as to the number of chapters is the fact that an article by Roy Reed appeared in the 6/6/65 issue of "The New York Times" which quoted Deacons leader Thomas as saying they had 50-55 chapters in various stages of organization. On 7/12/65 Reed telephoned our New Orleans Office to advise that he was preparing another article, that he had reports of 50-55 chapters and contradictory information that the Deacons is not as big as claimed. He was given a "no comment" reply to his inquiry for information concerning the Deacons. This surely illustrates the uncertainty as to the actual facts notwithstanding newspaper accounts.

Re: DEACONS OF DEFENSE AND JUSTICE, INCORPORATED

RECOMMENDATION:

This is for your information. We will continue to follow closely this investigation and keep you advised of pertinent developments.

DEACONS FOR DEFENSE AND JUSTICE
RACIAL MATTERS

Confidential sources who have furnished reliable information in the past and who are familiar with the activities of civil rights organizations in Jackson, Mississippi, have advised that they know of no organizations of the "Deacons for Defense and Justice" in the State of Mississippi.

On July 14, 1965, Charles Snodgrass (NA) Administrative Assistant, Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol, who is in charge of investigations, advised that he had recently made a specific check concerning the possibilities of the "Deacons for Defense and Justice" operating in Mississippi, and found no evidence that they were. He stated that he made a special effort to determine if there might be any such organization in the Mississippi counties neighboring Bogalusa, Louisiana, but found no evidence that this organization was operating in any of these counties.

On July 14, 1965, Charles Evers, Field Secretary, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Jackson, Mississippi, advised in connection with a comment attributed to him in an article in "The Wall Street Journal" of July 12, 1965, that he had referred to the Negroes in Mississippi who were defending themselves from violence and it was these individuals that he stated he "was glad were around". He said he knew of no groups of the "Deacons for Defense and Justice" in existence in Mississippi.

RURAL AREAS THE CARRYING OF RIFLES AND PISTOLS ARE COMMONPLACE BY THE CITIZENRY, BOTH WHITE AND NEGRO. FIREARMS SUCH AS RIFLES AND PISTOLS AND AMMUNITION ARE READILY AVAILABLE FROM LOCAL HARDWARE, SPORTING GOOD STORES, MAIL ORDER HOUSES, AND GUN DEALERS. THE CARRYING OF FIREARMS IN THE STATE OF LOUISIANA IS PERMISSIBLE PROVIDING THESE WEAPONS ARE NOT CONCEALED ON THE PERSON.

BECAUSE OF THE ECONOMIC STATUS OF THE MAJORITY OF THE MEMBERS OF THE DDJ'S IT IS BELIEVED THAT WITHOUT OUTSIDE FINANCIAL SUPPORT THAT PURCHASING OF WEAPONS ON A LARGE SCALE COULD NOT BE ACCOMPLISHED BY THE DDJ'S.

© BASED ON THE FACTS AVAILABLE BY INVESTIGATION TO DATE THE DEACONS FOR DEFENSE OF JUSTICE WHICH ORIGINATED IN JONESBORO, LOUISIANA THIS YEAR, HAS ATTRACTED A CERTAIN ELEMENT OF THE NEGRO RACE BUT THE CLAIMS BY NUMEROUS ORGANIZERS THAT THERE ARE BETWEEN FIVE TO FIFTEEN THOUSAND APPEARED TO BE GROSSLY EXAGGERATED. AS RACIAL DEMONSTRATIONS, MARCHES AND ACTIVITIES CONTINUE TO INCREASE THROUGHOUT THE STATE OF LOUISIANA, IT CAN BE ANTICIPATED THAT THE NUMBER OF MEMBERS WILL INCREASE. IT CAN READILY BE SEEN FROM INFORMATION DEVELOPED THAT THE CHAPTERS ARE GENERALLY FORMED WHENEVER THERE IS ANY SORT OF RACIAL ACTIVITY OR DEMONSTRATION IN THE PARTICULAR LOCALS, AND WITH THE INCREASE IN PARADES AND DEMONSTRATIONS BY THE NEGROES IN VARIOUS CITIES

THROUGHOUT THE STATE OF LOUISIANA THE ORGANIZERS
WILL UNDOUBTEDLY ENDEAVOR TO ESTABLISH CHAPTERS
IN THESE PARTICULAR CITIES. AS INFORMATION

CONCERNING ARTICLE JULY TWELVE LAST ISSUE OF WALL STREET JOURNAL, BY FRED L. ZIMMERMAN, JOURNAL WRITER, CAPTIONED "RACE AND VIOLENCE", BIRMINGHAM NOTES MAJOR PORTION DEALS WITH RACIAL SITUATION IN LOUISIANA. BIRMINGHAM NOT AWARE OF ACTUAL RACIAL SITUATION IN STATES OTHER THAN BIRMINGHAM DIVISION. RACIAL SITUATION IN BIRMINGHAM DIVISION APPEARS TO BE CALM WITH VARIOUS GROUPS, NEGRO AND WHITE, ATTEMPTING TO SEARCH FOR SOLUTIONS TO RACIAL PROBLEMS THAT WILL BE SATISFACTORY TO ALL CONCERNED.

BIRMINGHAM HAS NO KNOWLEDGE THAT NEGROES IN BIRMINGHAM DIVISION PLAN TO RESORT TO VIOLENT TACTICS OR FOLLOW AN "EYE FOR AN EYE" THEORY. BIRMINGHAM IS OF OPINION THAT MOST INDIVIDUALS AND GROUPS IN BIRMINGHAM DIVISION DESIRE TO AVOID ALL RACIAL VIOLENCE AND ARE EARNESTLY SEEKING A PEACEFUL ANSWER TO RACE PROBLEMS RATHER THAN THE FORMING OF "ARMED ORGANIZATIONS" AS MENTIONED IN ARTICLE.

Re Bureau airtel to New Orleans, Etal, dated 7/19/65.

On 7/16/65, SPIVER GORDON, CORE Field Secretary for Florida, [redacted] Tallahassee, Fla., was contacted by SAs ROBERT W. CLARK and V. LLOYD WARNKEN concerning investigation on another matter. During the conversation, GORDON was asked if he was familiar with captioned group, and he replied that he was. He stated that captioned group has on occasion in the past worked with CORE. They are a group of normally local businessmen who participate in picket lines and protest marches in a non-violent manner. If violence breaks out, this group combats violence with violence. They will attack local white residences just as hate groups and klans will attack Negro residences. He added that they have most noticeably been active in Louisiana and that he has been contacted by a representative of the group who was inquiring to determine if they were needed in the North Florida area. GORDON related that he told them they were not needed at this time in North Florida and to the best of his knowledge, there are no such groups active in the state of Fla.

On the dates indicated the following persons were contacted by SA V. LLOYD WARNKEN and advised they had no information concerning the existence of a group of captioned organization being in existence in the Florida area:

On 7/27/65, Chief of Police R. D. EDWARDS, Quincy, Fla.;

On the contact, all of the above persons advised that should they obtain any information concerning captioned organization they would immediately notify the FBI.

On 7/26/65, SPIVER GORDON, CORE Field Secretary, Tallahassee, Fla., contacted SA V. LLOYD WARNKEN concerning another matter and during the course of this contact advised that there had been quite a bit of talk recently concerning the organization of a group of the Deacons of Defense and Justice possibly in Jefferson and Madison Counties in North Florida. He stated, however, that he was discouraging the organization of this group adding that he did not feel they were needed and would serve no useful purpose in North Florida at this time. He stated that to the best of his knowledge there is no such group currently operating in the state of Fla., and no formative steps being taken in an attempt to organize such a group.

In view of the fact there appears to be no such group currently active in the North Florida area, this matter is being considered RUC and should any information come to the attention of the Jacksonville Office concerning this group it will immediately be made known to the Bureau and New Orleans.

Reairtel sets forth information that Charles Sims of the Deacons of Defense and Justice, Bogalusa, Louisiana, was in Los Angeles in June, 1965, and appeared on the Louis Lomax television program on 6/13/65. News articles concerning the Deacons appeared in the "Los Angeles Times" of 6/13/65. The Deacons is an all-Negro organization formed for the claimed purpose of self-protection against Klan violence. Its members are encouraged to carry arms, and during recent demonstrations in Bogalusa, Louisiana, Deacons were observed carrying walkie-talkies.

Los Angeles letter and LHM of 8/15/65 sets forth information from a source that "...a member of the Los Angeles Local-Socialist Workers Party (LAL-SWP)..., stated that James Garrett had told him that the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) is outfitting a secret Negro army under the guise of self-defense." According to the source, donations to SNCC are possibly being used to purchase walkie-talkies and weapons for the Negro organization. (S)(u)

The reference in relet to the "secret Negro army" formed for "self-defense" may be an allusion to the Deacons. Accordingly, Los Angeles should promptly direct its investigative efforts to verifying the accuracy of the information furnished by its source relative to possible SNCC or SWP backing the (S)(u)

Dear Senator Stennis:

During the past several weeks in many national publications an organization known as the Deacons for Defense and Justice has received quite a bit of publicity. In both a recent issue of LIFE Magazine and NEWSWEEK, there have been references to the use of automatic weapons, grenades and mortars. I believe that such weapons in the hands of ordinary citizens without a proper licensing of the individual and the weapon is illegal. My question to you is: can you find out from the FBI if they are aware of these statements and if all of this has been checked out to the letter of the law?

You have certainly been getting good publicity in these parts and I think that the whole nation is most appreciative of your fine efforts. The next time you are home we certainly hope that we will have the opportunity of visiting with you.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Deacons of Defense And Justice

21 July 1965

In connection with another matter, a source of this office talked to Mr. Jay Richard KENNEDY at his residence, New York City, on 13 July 1965. (Various topics were covered during the interview and have been reported under separate memoranda.) Following are Mr. KENNEDY's comments (not verbatim) concerning James FARMER of CORE which Mr. KENNEDY indicated should be forwarded in part to the President. In this connection, it should be noted that the source made it specifically clear to Mr. KENNEDY that he had no access to the White House, or any channel to the White House, but that he would report Mr. KENNEDY's comments in his usual channel into his own particular office within the Agency.

Mr. KENNEDY pointed out that James FARMER, who is head of CORE, is the number one target of the Maoist Communists and that by target Mr. KENNEDY specifically meant that FARMER either had to be assassinated or "engulfed" and taken over by the Peking-line Communists. Mr. KENNEDY stated that this was obvious since FARMER is the only known non-violence advocate who is an outstanding anti-Communist and the foremost negro leader who commands a national following. Mr. KENNEDY stated Martin Luther KING has already shown his hand by attacking the Administration and advocating a pull-out in Vietnam (KENNEDY insists that KING is compromised by his moral background and is probably controlled by Peking-line Communists); A. Phillip RANDOLPH is out of the United States and is very inactive; Harry BELAFONTE, of course, is a Communist and undoubtedly Peking controlled; and Whitney YOUNG and Roy WILKINS have no popular grass-roots type of following.

Mr. KENNEDY stated that the effort to "get" FARMER was obvious in the recent CORE convention at Durham, North Carolina, where efforts were made to remove FARMER as head of CORE and where the convention had adopted an anti-Administration "pull-out of Vietnam" line. Mr. KENNEDY stated obviously this was Peking-line inspired and the remarkable about-face that FARMER forced on the convention not only showed FARMER's control and courage, but very clearly targeted him to the Peking-line Communists. Mr. KENNEDY pointed out it must be remembered that while the convention was going on, Martin Luther KING issued a public statement denouncing U. S. policy and advocating pulling out of Vietnam.

Further, Mr. KENNEDY commented that FARMER's wife, [redacted] who is a white woman, had called Mr. KENNEDY from Durham and that Mr. KENNEDY had, in addition to offering advice, offered to come to Durham at that time. Mr. KENNEDY commented he cannot state the exact effect his talk with Mrs. FARMER had (which is apparently unknown to James FARMER), but it was obvious that FARMER's reversing the CORE convention stand followed in the wake of this telephone call. Further, according to Mr. KENNEDY, FARMER, immediately upon arriving in New York from Durham, called Mr. KENNEDY.

Subsequently, according to Mr. KENNEDY, he has talked with FARMER both before his trip to Bogalusa, Louisiana, and after his return. Mr. KENNEDY stated that he had asked FARMER about the situation in Louisiana and FARMER had explained his views in the following manner which is the basis for the KENNEDY recommendation of passing the information to the White House. FARMER stated that his problem in Bogalusa and also in other places in the South is the fact that the poor negro families, most of whom reside in isolated areas of country surrounding the towns, are subject to terror and intimidation by bands of white extremists who threaten and actually commit bodily harm on these negro people. Furthermore, these people have no means of transportation and to try to get them to come into town to register as voters, facing the difficulties of intimidation and lack of transportation, is a major problem. According to FARMER, there has been no help for these people until the advent of the so-called Deacons and that the Deacons have offered assistance and more importantly physical protection. FARMER stated that when these people turned to him and asked "What can we do?", FARMER had no real answer. According to Mr. KENNEDY, he asked FARMER why didn't he appeal to the President personally since FARMER does have access to the White House, and FARMER stated that he could not do this now. Mr. KENNEDY asked him why he could not and FARMER explained that if he publicly appealed to the President after forcing the CORE convention to reverse its stand on Vietnam, it would look like a "deal" and that he, FARMER, could be discredited because of this. Mr. KENNEDY asked FARMER what type of appeal should be made to the White House and FARMER, in substance, replied that if the White House were to send in either federal troops or federal marshals to protect the negro voters then he, FARMER, could handle the Deacons. Mr. KENNEDY asked FARMER if he knew the leadership of the Deacons and named Ernest THOMAS and "Val" SIMS. FARMER stated, of course, he knew both of these individuals and when asked by Mr. KENNEDY about how many Deacons there were, FARMER stated that all told they had estimated about 10,000. Mr. KENNEDY then said how could you handle the Deacons assuming that you had federal troops or marshals to help. According to Mr. KENNEDY, FARMER stated that he would tell the Deacons and their leaders to "cool it" and "they would cool it." Mr. KENNEDY insisted that FARMER is extremely positive on this point.

According to Mr. KENNEDY, FARMER is somewhat naive politically and although Mr. KENNEDY has tried to explain to him the Maoist tactics, FARMER does not as yet fully comprehend them. Mr. KENNEDY stated it is perfectly obvious that behind the Deacons is a strong organization force of hard core Peking-line Communists. Mr. KENNEDY further stated that the Communists are provoking violence and also quite obviously they are provoking violence in an area where CORE is active. Also it was clearly apparent that they worked against FARMER at the national CORE convention at Durham, North Carolina.

~~SECRET~~ (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

Mr. KENNEDY stated that there is a facade of legitimate, harassed negroes who are honestly trying to protect other negroes (and themselves) by defending them by physical means and that these negroes are being duped and pushed into violence by the Communists. They, of course, do not understand this. Mr. KENNEDY further said that FARMER, himself, does not directly understand although he may have learned a rude lesson at the Durham, North Carolina, convention where he was nearly kicked out of his leadership. In addition, Mr. KENNEDY stated that if the negroes got federal support and FARMER stopped the Deacons movement, this would leave the hard core Communists behind the Deacons exposed and vulnerable.

Mr. KENNEDY stated that it is his intention to meet with FARMER as soon as possible and go over again with him the matter of the Deacons and the left-wing political maneuvers behind the Deacons.

4. To solicit and/or receive donations and gifts.

RICHARD BULLOCK HENRY, President, was shown as the first Resident Agent. The corporation, at the time of incorporation, owned no real estate but claimed to have $1,000.00 in cash.

On August 11, 1965, source #2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that in March, 1965, Richard Henry stated that because of financial difficulties the GOAL office was being closed. Source further advised that GOAL is not functioning as an organization at this time and that Richard Henry is merely utilizing the name of GOAL in order to indicate that the freedom dinner is being sponsored by a local civil rights organization when, in fact, such is not the case.
